Auckland War Memorial Museum

- Auckland War Memorial Museum – Visit one of the finest museums in the Southern Hemisphere, including a gallery displaying over 1,000 Māori taonga (treasures).
- Maritime Museum – Learn about the sea’s key role in Kiwi life, from the earliest Polynesian voyagers, through to New Zealand’s modern day champions of sailing.
- MOTAT – the Museum of Transport and Technology, highlighting Kiwi ingenuity. Explore a historic village and ride a vintage tram to the amazing collection in the Aviation Display Hall.

Then dine out on the waterfront views during a ‘walk and fork’ standing and socialising lunch at Harbourside Ocean Bar Grill, which specialises in fresh New Zealand seafood, meat and produce.

In the afternoon, cruise the sparkling waters of Auckland’s beautiful Waitematā Harbour on Fullers360’s Quick Cat. View the city skyline, stunning coastal scenery and volcanic islands, look for marine wildlife, and hear informative commentary.

End the evening with dinner, dancing, and entertainment onboard.

DAY THREE

Free time to shop for high-end international brands, boutique New Zealand designers or unique New Zealand gifts in the Commercial Bay, Britomart and Queen Street precincts.

Stock up on mementos to take home including New Zealand wine, Manuka honey, Merino wool apparel, natural skincare products or Māori crafts such as a pounamu (greenstone), bone or wood carvings.

Choose your lunch in the Commercial Bay food court of fantastic street food-style offerings. Diverse vendors provide a rich array of cuisines, world flavours, and vegan and halal options to suit all tastes.

Return to your accommodation for spa treatments and appointments with mobile hair and makeup artists to prepare for the evening closing extravaganza.

Memorable gala dinner options include:

Sampling the best of Auckland’s famed cultural festivals at either modern waterfront venue Viaduct Events Centre, or heritage-listed revamped industrial space Shed 10. From the bright lights of the Lantern Festival to the vibrant culture of Pasifika and the history of Tāmaki Herenga Waka Festival, the evening will incorporate music, dance, and cultural performances from each festival, capturing the vibrant multicultural flavours of Auckland.

Or be entertained with a bespoke performance from the Auckland Philharmonia orchestra, performing anything from world-class traditional classical pieces to dancefloor-filling modern dance anthems.

If you’d like something more casual, transfer to Little Creatures Brewery & Tap Room at Hobsonville Point. Enjoy diverse food stations then dance the night away to DJs at this former seaplane hangar which now hosts New Zealand’s biggest microbrewery.
